3rd September 1992

Your Excellency

I warmly welcome your decision to commute the death sentences of the three Peruvians Mauro González Quispe, René Lario Aguilar and Hisbert Fausto Mamani Morales.

However, I am writing to you again to express my serious concern for the life of Rafael Escorza Henríquez who was sentenced to death on 21 August 1992 on charges of illicit terrorist association. This case is now before the Santiago Appeals Court, which is the last instance of Appeal. I respectfully ask you to use your powers of clemency to commute his death sentence.

Yours sincerely

Sarah West (Mrs)
