Dear President Ailwyn,

I take leave of your country with fondest memories and would like to thank you personally for such kind hospitality and fruitful discussions.

My delegation and I return home deeply touched by the warm affection and spontaneous expressions of welcome by the citizens of Santiago.

I believe we have laid sound foundations on which to build in the years ahead. I look forward to receiving you in Jamaica next year and feel confident that under your able leadership we will witness even closer cooperation in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

B. P. W.
