Your Excellency,

I am a member of Amnesty International and I am writing to you out of concern for the fate of the indigenous peoples of the Americas in this year of the 500th anniversary of European colonisation.

I would like to draw to your attention the case of Nelson Wladimir Cerinier Linequeo who was last seen alive in October 1973 in the Magueluá air force base. The Comisión Nacional de Verdad y Reconciliación have found evidence that he was shot, but the 1978 Amnesty law has prevented a case against his executioners being brought to court.

I appeal to you to take action in this case and in other similar cases so that these outstanding violations of human rights in your country may be resolved.

Yours respectfully and sincerely

Aileen Gray
