Your Excellency,

As a concerned world citizen, I am always worried about the violation of anyone's human rights. Since 1992 is being marked in a number of countries as the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Europeans on the continent, it seems appropriate to highlight some concerns with respect to some unsolved human rights violations against indigenous peoples of what is now called the Americas, including the case of Nelson Wladimir Curran Lincoqueo. This concern, however, will simply not end after 1992 is over. I am concerned that he was extrajudicially executed in 1973.

I welcome the investigations into his killing and express the hope that the full truth will emerge. Those responsible for his death should be brought to justice. Those responsible for all other human rights violations should also be brought to justice.

The Amnesty Law passed in 1978 for all those who as "authors, accomplices, or accessories" had been responsible for crimes committed during the state of siege between 1973 and 1978 constitutes an obstacle

YOUR excellency,

10/28/92

I am an American and a member of Amnesty International. As both I am concerned with the rights of humans around the world. This year marks the 500th anniversary of Europeans on the continent. This time makes one stop and reflect the rights of indigenous peoples of the Americas, which continue to be ~~abot~~ abused five centuries later.

It has been brought to my attention that such an abuse or violation of rights occurred in 1973 in Chile. Mapuche Indian, <sup>Nelson</sup> Vladimiro Cruzinir Lincoguelo, was arrested from his home October 5, 1973. His body was found in March 1990 by <sup>another</sup> ~~the~~ Mapuche Indian in a cemetery near Temuco. Those responsible for his ~~arrest~~ <sup>arrest</sup> and death have not been brought to justice.

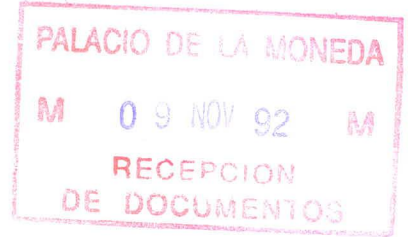

Under an amnesty law passed in Chile in 1978, those who as "authors, accomplices or accessories" ~~had~~ were responsible ~~for~~ for crimes committed between September 11, 1973 and March 10, 1978 are now free from responsibility for their crimes. Nelson Cruzinir's killing falls into this category, and it has therefore not <sup>been</sup> ~~being~~ resolved. I ask that you reopen his case; and an investigation will bring forth the truth and those responsible will be brought to justice. Also, I request that you look into repealing the amnesty law of 1978; as it is an obstacle to clarifying past abuses and preventing their recurrences.

Sincerely,
Laura Guttor

Your Excellency,

As a responsible citizen of the United States I am always concerned about the violation of anyone's human rights. I feel the need to look out for the human rights of others is especially important this year with many countries celebrating the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Europeans on the continent. Now is the time for everyone to look into unsolved human rights violations of the past. The case of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo tremendously concerns me.

According to information I have received, Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo was extrajudicially executed in 1973. He was arrested from his home on October 5, 1973 and charged with membership in the Movement of the Revolutionary Left. His body was not found until 1990. I am deeply concerned about his death.

I welcome the investigations being made into Lincoqueo's case by the National Commission of Truth and Reconciliation and hope that the truth will be found and those responsible will be brought to justice. All people responsible for human rights abuses in Chile must be brought to justice in order to prevent these horrible events from reoccurring. I believe the Amnesty Law of 1978 which does not hold people who were "authors, accomplices or accessories" to human rights violations accountable for their actions merely paves the way for more abuses. In light of the democratic government currently in place in your country, I encourage your government to repeal the Amnesty Law of 1978 allowing for the full facts to be discovered in these pending cases. Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.

Gincerely,
Jennifer Shepard

Senor Presidente:

I am a member of AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL, a worldwide movement working impartially for the release of all prisoners of conscience, fair and prompt trials for political prisoners and an end to torture and executions.

I am writing out of great concern over the death of NELSON WLADIMIRO CURINIR LINCOQUEO, a Mapuche Indian who was a 22-year-old student at the State Technical University in Temuco in 1973. On October 5, 1973, a heavily armed group of men in air force uniforms entered his home, threatened the occupants and took NELSON CURINIR to Maquehua air force base. His family never saw him alive again.

On October 18, 1973, his family heard an announcement on the radio describing NELSON WLADIMIRO CURINIR LINCOQUEO as an MIR activist and saying he had escaped from custody while being transferred to Temuco prison. Witnesses have stated NELSON CURINIR had been taken from the base in Maquehua by members of the air force on October 13, 1973. That is the last time anyone saw him alive.

In March 1990, a Mapuche Indian stated NELSON CURINIR's body had been found on the banks of the River Cautin in 1973 and had been buried as "NN" in a cemetery near Temuco. A civilian judge ordered NELSON CURINIR's body exhumed and identified. Before re-burial, an autopsy revealed he had been shot in the back of the head.

On January 5, 1991, NELSON CURINIR's family buried him in Temuco, 17 years after his abduction by the security forces. A criminal complaint (querrela) for homicide was presented to the court in 1991. However, the amnesty law of 1978 prevents the prosecution of this and thousands of other cases of human rights abuses.

I join Amnesty International in welcoming the investigations into NELSON CURINIR's killing and hope the full truth will emerge and those responsible for his death be brought to justice. I also agree with Amnesty International's beliefs that this must happen with respect to all the human rights violations committed in Chile in order to prevent such atrocities from happening again.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT,

I AM WRITING WITH GRAVE CONCERN FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN CHILE. I RECENTLY READ OF THE EXTRAJUDICIAL EXECUTION OF NELSON WLADIMIRO CURINIR LINCOQUEO. AS A UNIVERSITY STUDENT, I WOULD FIND IT HORRIFYING TO BE TAKEN VIOLENTLY FROM MY HOME, ACCUSED OF TREASON, AND IMMEDIATELY JAILED WITHOUT TRIAL. NELSON EXPERIENCED THIS VERY NIGHTMARE ON THE NIGHT OF OCTOBER 5TH, 1973. HUMAN RIGHTS SHOULD BE GIVEN TO ALL HUMANS. PLEASE CONSIDER THIS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION AS ONLY ONE EXAMPLE OF MANY. THE INJUSTICES DEALT UPON NELSON AND OTHER INDIGENOUS PEOPLES IN CHILE MUST BE INVESTIGATED AND BROUGHT TO AN END.

Excelentísimo Señor Presidente:

Es de todos conocido el violento golpe de estado de 1973 contra el recién electo gobierno de Salvador Allende. Una de las víctimas de este lamentable hecho fue Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoguelo, quien fue asesinado ese año. Este hecho aún no ha sido clarificado, los responsables no han sido procesados. Como miembro de Amnistía Internacional estoy sumamente preocupado por las violaciones a los derechos humanos aún no resueltas. En este caso, por la ejecución extrajudicial de Nelson Curinir, un miembro de los Indios Mampuche.

A la luz de la reciente democratización en Chile, de la cual usted es una figura prominente, le pido vehementemente que se investigue la causa de la muerte de Nelson Curinir y se exponga a los culpables a la justicia.

Estoy seguro que usted y su Ministro de Justicia harán valer los derechos de Nelson Curinir. Espero me informe del resultado de su investigación.
