Dear Eduardo,

RE: President Aylwin's visit to New York

As we discussed, Mr. McGillicuddy would be pleased to issue an invitation for either breakfast or lunch on Friday, September 28, 1990. Preliminarily, we would propose inviting the following Chairmen:

- |   |                                |
|---|--------------------------------|
| Mr. John Reed, Chairman & CEO             | Citibank                       |
| Mr. Thomas Clausen, Chairman & CEO        | Bank of America                |
| Mr. Walter Shipley, Chairman              | Chemical Bank                  |
| Mr. Charles Sanford, Chairman & CEO       | Bankers Trust Company          |
| Mr. Thomas G. Labrecque, CEO              | Chase Manhattan Bank           |
| Mr. Dennis Weatherstone, Chairman         | Morgan Guaranty                |
| Mr. Cedric Ritchie, Chairman & CEO        | Bank of Nova Scotia            |
| Mr. Tasuku Takagaki, President            | Bank of Tokyo                  |
| Sir Kitt McMahon, Chairman and Group CEO  | Midland Bank                   |
| Dr. Wolfgang Roeller, Chairman            | Dresdner Bank, AG              |
| (To be confirmed)                         | Credit Suisse                  |
| Sir Jeremy Morse, Chairman                | Lloyds                         |
| Mr. Walter Seipp, Chairman                | Commerzbank                    |
| Mr. James Robinson, Chairman & CEO        | American Express               |
| Mr. W. Purves, Chairman or                | The Hong Kong & Shanghai       |
| Mr. Geoffrey A. Thompson, President & CEO | Marine Midland Bank            |
| Mr. Richard J. Flanson, III, Chairman     | Security Pacific National Bank |

Possibly, we may wish to invite a French bank such as:

Banque Nationale de Paris / or Credit Lyonnais

This is the preliminary list subject to additions or subtractions based on potential interest.

Best personal regards,
