Dear Sr. Azócar,

I am writing to express concern at threats made against members of CODEPU - Committee for the Defense of the Rights of the People, a human rights organization in Santiago. On 29th January 1992 the offices of CODEPU were raided for no apparent reason.

Apparently death threats were received by members of CODEPU, and I'd ask that the source of these threats be investigated, and those responsible be brought to justice. In ~~add~~ the light of these threats adequate steps should be taken to protect the lives and physical integrity of all members of CODEPU.

I'd urge the government to take measures to ensure that members of human rights groups are able to conduct their legitimate activities without fear of reprisal.

Thankyou for taking the time to read this letter, and I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

J. Dermot Hughes
