Sir :

The Kilusang Mayo Uno labor center of the Philippines intervene on behalf of Belinda Zubicueta Carmona. We understand that for the last six years she has been tortured emotionally and psychologically and deprived of her freedom without the benefit of due process of law.

We believe that Belinda Zubicueta Carmona deserve to be granted temporary release not only because it is basically her right as guaranteed by the International Declaration of Human Rights but also for humanitarian grounds. We also urge you that she be tried before an ordinary civilian and competent tribunal as soon as possible and that she benefit from her full legal rights.

We hope that you will seriously consider this matter.
