Dear Sr. Patricio Aylwin Azocar

I am writing to you because I am concerned at all times about the violation of anyone's human rights.

As 1992 is being marked in a number of countries as the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Europeans on the continent it seems to be a particularly appropriate time to highlight concerns with respect to human rights violations against indigenous peoples of what is now called the Americas. I would add that my concern for human rights will not diminish once this anniversary year of 1992 is over.

I wish to express my grave concern about the extrajudicial execution of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo in 1973.

At the same time I would welcome the investigations into his killing and express my hope that the full truth will emerge and that those responsible for his death will be brought to justice. Please note that Amnesty International believes that this must happen with respect to this and all other human rights violations committed in Chile in order to prevent such atrocities from recurring. Please note also that Amnesty International believes that the amnesty law of 1978 constitutes an obstacle to clarifying past abuses and preventing their recurrence, and that the law should therefore be repealed.

I would stress that this letter is not in any way politically partisan. My only concern in writing is for fundamental human rights. I look forward to your reply, and meanwhile remain yours sincerely,

G.M. Wrankmore
